

PALM BEACH HEALTH ASSOCIATES ACQUIRED BY MCCI HOLDINGS

Transaction Combines Two Leading South Florida Medical Management Companies

Miami, FL, New York, NY, and Nashville, TN – February 11, 2008 – MCCI Holdings, LLC (“MCCI”), a South Florida-based provider of medical management services for managed care organizations, announced today the acquisition of Palm Beach Health Associates, Inc. (“PBHA”). MCCI acquired the privately-held Palm Beach Health Associates for an undisclosed sum. Goldman Sachs Urban Investment Group (“UIG”), Pharos Capital Group, LLC (“Pharos”) and the MCCI management team are among the existing investors in MCCI.

Palm Beach Health Associates, Inc. is a leading provider of primary care physician services in Palm Beach County, Florida. PBHA was founded in 1998 by a group of physicians and currently provides medical services to over 9,000 Medicare beneficiaries enrolled in Humana plans. PBHA differentiates itself by providing superior preventative and urgent care to its patients and focusing its clinical model on improving the overall health of its membership base.

The combined organization will have over 56,000 members and a significant market position in Palm Beach, Dade and Broward counties. The acquisition complements and solidifies MCCI's existing presence in Palm Beach County.

“We are excited about the opportunity to add PBHA to the MCCI family of medical centers,” said Dr. Jose Armas, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the combined companies. “MCCI’s acquisition of PBHA exemplifies our commitment to delivering high-quality, technologically advanced care to a diverse population. The combined companies will be uniquely positioned to support market-leading health plans, physicians, and hospitals in providing exemplary care to patients.”
