Pharos Capital Promotes Joel Goldberg to Principal

Nashville, June 20, 2006 – Pharos Capital Group, LLC, a private equity firm based in Dallas and Nashville, announced today that Joel Goldberg has been promoted to Principal, effective June 7, 2006.

Goldberg, 33, has 11 years of private equity experience and was most recently Vice President with Pharos. Since joining the firm in 1997, Joel has taken primary responsibility for structuring and negotiating new investment opportunities, and leads a team of professionals conducting all financial and legal due diligence for the firm's expanding investment portfolio. He also serves on the Boards of a number of portfolio companies, including Converge, Inc. and iOnosphere, Inc.

“In recognition of Joel's hard work, dedication and contribution to the firm and to our portfolio companies, we are pleased to announce his promotion to Principal,” said Kneeland Youngblood, co-founder and Managing Partner of Pharos Capital. “Joel has played a critical role in developing the firm's due diligence process and has been instrumental in structuring and negotiating numerous investment transactions.”

Goldberg began his career in the Corporate Finance Department of J.C. Bradford & Co., where he was involved in numerous mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions and the issuance of public securities. He is a graduate of Vanderbilt University, where he received a B.A., summa cum laude, in Economics and Mathematics.
